The Prophetic Judgment Of My Greedy Ministers

“A Living God I Am, My son. A lot of My people don’t follow Me right. They refuse to give away all, My son, and follow Me like you have. In fact, they want more for self in this greedy culture. Greedy dogs are everywhere in ministry, false prophets who can never have enough. They have misused the Prosperity Gospel for their own advantage, stockpiling vast stockpiles of wealth. My son, that should not be so. They should distribute unto the people, but instead hoard vast sums for self. Woe unto the greedy dogs, My son, false ministers who forever want more. It should have been better that they had never been born! Woe unto them, the miseries headed their way, their wealth shall eat their flesh as by fire! Such is the end of all greedy men who hoard wealth for the end times, My son! You have none– rejoice in your pennilessness! Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen forever!”
